

AARON ASAAD

Worldbuilding & Lore Documentation Specialist | Game Writing Support | Narrative Systems

Fresno, CA | 559-835-7417 | aaron.asaad2016@gmail.com | linkedin.com/in/aaronasaad

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Story systems and worldbuilding specialist with an M.A. in Linguistics & Translation and a background in teaching, writing, game analysis, and structured documentation. I help early-stage game and fiction teams turn scattered lore, faction concepts, quest ideas, world rules, and tone fragments into organized, development-ready materials: lore bibles, world guides, faction logic, quest outlines, tone guides, and visual proof packages.

Positioning note: best suited for entry-level/contract support roles in lore documentation, worldbuilding cleanup, game writing assistance, narrative QA/review, quest outline support, and creative development support - not limited to senior narrative designer roles.

TARGET ROLE KEYWORDS

Worldbuilding Specialist | Lore Writer | Lore Documentation Assistant | Game Writer | Narrative Systems Assistant | Quest Writer | Creative Development Assistant | Narrative QA / Story QA | Faction & Worldbuilding Support | Interactive Story Support

CORE SKILLS

- Worldbuilding architecture: factions, history, magic systems, social rules, setting logic, internal consistency.
- Lore documentation: story bibles, world guides, tone guides, faction sheets, system summaries, and reference briefs.
- Quest and progression support: quest hooks, branching choices, faction pressure, player outcomes, and narrative flow.
- Narrative QA: identifying story gaps, vague motivation, inconsistent rules, weak tone, unclear stakes, and broken continuity.
- Visual narrative packaging: moodboards, cinematic keyframes, pitch visuals, presentation-ready project cards.
- Language and documentation: strong grammar, structure, editing, rubric-based review, bilingual English/Russian fluency.

SELECTED PORTFOLIO SAMPLES

- ATLAS 31 / Second Earth - original deep-space IP sample showing metaphysics, ship hierarchy, ritual systems, social strata, and narrative voice.
- The Siamic Peninsula - fantasy worldbuilding document with factions, history, magic system, central conflict, key characters, and story hook.
- The Artifact of Silent Ruin - RPG quest sample with investigation, faction conflict, branching outcomes, and player-allegiance paths.
- Psychopunk Tone Bible - tone and style guide covering voice, imagery systems, rhythm, POV logic, and cross-media atmosphere.
- PROTOTEUS: The Waking Cycle - polished sci-fi narrative sample demonstrating atmospheric voice, sensory detail, and metaphysical scene structure.

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Independent Worldbuilding / Story Systems Consultant | Revealed Cosmos / Project-Based | 2019-Present

- Created original worldbuilding systems, lore architectures, and narrative frameworks for speculative fiction and game-adjacent IP concepts.
- Developed faction systems, magic rules, quest structures, narrative tone bibles, and story-world documentation for portfolio and client-facing use.

- Structured fragmented creative material into clear development-ready documents that can support writers, developers, artists, and collaborators.
- Produced AI-assisted visual references and moodboards to clarify atmosphere, tone, and visual direction for early concept packaging.

Language Evaluation & Instruction Specialist | Education Sector / California | 2017-2026

- Evaluated high volumes of written work for clarity, structure, evidence, reasoning, grammar, tone, and audience alignment.
- Designed rubrics, structured feedback cycles, instructional materials, and documentation workflows for learners across diverse backgrounds.
- Built strong experience translating complex ideas into clear, teachable, actionable steps - useful for teams with messy creative material.

Sales & Marketing / Content Development Background | Printing & Media Company / Freelance | 2013-2019

- Produced branded messaging, print/digital content, client-facing materials, and structured presentations.
- Developed practical experience in positioning, customer communication, project coordination, and message clarity.
